Holiday Dinner Party

By Sandy and Richard Riccardi

(Melody - Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer)

Intro - downstrokes

```
          F          Em                F          C
I made turkey and stuffing and hot mashed potatoes
F           Em                F           C
Yams and a ham and some fried green tomatoes
Am          E7          Am          D          G7
But I had forgot what my friends could have or have not:
```

Verse 1 - strum

```
  C                                                    G
Charlie could not eat cheddar cuz it clashed with his meds
 G7                                                   C
Lee's on a low carb diet, couldn't sample any breads
```

Verse 2

```
  C                                                   G
Anya could not eat onions cuz they filled her up with gas
G7                                                     C     C7
Elsie could not have eggnog cuz it knocked her on her ass!
```

Bridge

```
   F                C          F                C
I made Martha Stewart's tart, sweet and high-falutin'
G                          D /              G7 /
that six people couldn't eat ‘cuz it contained gluten!
```

Verse 3

```
    C                                                  G
Sherman could not have shellfish or he would asphyxi-ate
 G7                                                      C
There wasn't one damn item that could stay on Linda's plate!
```

Intro2 - DOWNSTROKES

```
        F                Em                    F          C
My souffle was a masterpiece, so light and airy
              F               Em          F          C
But my guests couldn't eat it cuz no one ate dairy!
   Am                   E7
I broke down and wept:
              Am           D           G7
If you're vegan, then why'd you accept?
```

Verse 4

```
C                                                        G
Penny got on her podium, on and on and on she went
                        G                                          C
about the evils of sodium and how she's lactose intolerant!
```

Verse 5

```
 C                                                     G
Peter was prone to bloating, couldn't eat the broccoli
                    G                                      C   C7
Annie gets acid reflux every time she looks at me !
```

Bridge

```
   F                  C               F                C
When I put the turkey down Sarah had to say
G                                   D /                   G /
"Ever since the world began, I can't eat no tryptophan!”
```

Verse 6

```
  C                                                  G
Everyone at the table, getting up in years, you see
 G                                                          C
Skipped the meal all together and talked about their surgeries!
```

Outro - downstrokes

```
      F                  Em          F                C
So I said pass the Beano and pour me some vino and F             Em               G7 \   \       \          C   (vibrato)
screw it, next year, have it      at  your  house     please!
```