

It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas

by Meredith Willson (1951)

Intro: F . Dm . | Gm7 . C7 . | F . Dm . | Gm7 . C7

(sing a)

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christ-mas— eve-ry—where you go—

Take a look in the five and ten glistening once a-gain

With candy canes and silver lanes a-glow—

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christ-mas— toys— in ev'—ry store—

But the prettiest site to see is the holly that will be on your own— front— door—

E Verse: Hop-a-long boots and a pistol that shoots are the wishes of Barney and Ben

Dolls that will talk and will go for a walk is the hope of Janice and Jen

And Mom and Dad can't hardly wait for school to start a-gain

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christ-mas— eve-ry—where you go—

There's a tree in the Grand Ho-tel one in the park as well

The sturdy kind that doesn't mind the snow—

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christ-mas— soon—the bells will start—

And the thing that will make them ring, is the carol that you sing

Right with- in— your— heart— Right with-in— your— heart—
