

Put on a Happy Face (key of G)

by Charles Strouse and Lee Adams (from the movie, "Bye, Bye Birdie") (1960)

G E7 Am D . . . |
Gray skies are gon-na clear up put on a hap-py face—

G E7 Am | Dm7 G7 |
Brush off the clouds and cheer up put on a hap-py face—

C B7 E7 A7 D7 G7 . . . |
Take off the gloom-y mask of trage-dy, it's not your style—

C B7 E7 A7 Am D . . . |
You'll look so good that you'll be glad you de-ci-ded— to smile—

G E7 | Am | D |
Pick out a pleas-ant out-look— stick out that no-ble chin—

G E7 | Am | Dm7 G7 |
Wipe off that "full of doubt" look— slap on a hap-py grin—

C G | D | E7 |
And spread sun-shine— all ov-er— the place—

Am D7 G | |
Just put on— a hap-py— face—

G E7 | Am | D |
Da dum da dum da da dum— put on a hap-py face—

G E7 | Am | Dm7 G7 |
Da dum da dum da dum dum— put on a hap-py face—

C B7 E7 A7 D7 | G7 . . . |
And if you're fee-ling cross and bicker-ish, don't sit and whine—

C B7 E7 A7 D Am D |
Think of ba-na-na splits and licor-ice and you'll feel fine—

G E7 | Am | D |
I knew a girl so gloom-y— she'd never laugh or sing—

G E7 | Am | Dm7 G7 |
She wouldn't list-en to me— now she's a mean old thing—

C G | D | E7 |
So spread sun-shine— all ov-er— the place—

Am D7 | Am | D7 |
Just put on— a hap-py— put on a hap-py—

Am D7 | G | G D7 G |
put on a hap-py— face—!
